ALCOHOL

Alcohol is not allowed to be brought onto the fairgrounds. There will be a Beer Garden on the grounds for purchase of alcoholic beverages nightly.

CONCESSIONS

We are conscientious in granting concessions and always try to avoid having any objectionable characters on our fairgrounds during the fair, so that no man, woman, or child can have any cause for complaint. We want our fair to be clean in every respect.

AUTO PARKING

Automobiles will be required to park in places designated by those in charge of the parking. The Fair Management assumes no obligation and no liability for any thefts or damages that may occur.

ADVERTISEMENTS

The promiscuous distribution of handbills or other advertising matter is strictly prohibited, and no tacking or posting of advertising bills, cards, etc., will be permitted on any of the buildings or elsewhere. Exhibitors may advertise at, and distribute from, their places of exhibit only.

RULES

While the greatest possible care will be taken by the management to protect patrons of the Washington County Fair, each individual will be held personally responsible for his or her actions, and the management will not be responsible for any injury.

The Board of Directors of the Washington County Agricultural Society reserves the final and absolute right to interpret these rules and regulations and arbitrarily settle and determine all matters, questions and differences in regard thereto and otherwise arising out of, connected with, or incident to, the Fair.

1. The entry of articles or animals must be made in the name of the owner or a duly authorized agent and shown on entry application and livestock must be owned 30 days before the Fair opens.
2. All awarded premiums uncalled for prior to October 1st after the close of the Fair shall be deemed donated to the society.
3. No premium money will be paid on discretionary exhibit.
 - 3a. Judges will not award animal or article a premium unless in their judgment it is entitled to the premium awarded.
4. No animals or articles shall be removed from the grounds before the time appointed, the last day of the Fair, without consent of the President. Any violation of this rule incurs a forfeit of any or all premiums that may be awarded on the animal or article removed.
5. Every possible precaution will be taken for the safekeeping of articles on exhibition after their arrival and arrangement, but the society will not be responsible for any damages or losses that may occur.
6. All articles must be marked by cards furnished by the secretary designating class and number. These cards must not be removed until the close of the Fair.
7. All entries must be made in strict compliance with premium lists and awards made in accordance. Parties must therefore take pains to have stock and articles just as they want them.
8. Superintendents will go over and verify their work with the secretary's office and hand in their books.
9. Animals entered as purebreds must be eligible to registry. In livestock classes, the animals shown shall have been the property of the exhibitor at least thirty days prior to the opening of the Fair.
10. Exhibitors are requested to carefully read these rules and get blank applications for entry.
11. Exhibitions must be from Washington County.
12. All fans must be OK'd by the office before they are used on the fairgrounds.
13. Those who wish to promote their political philosophy or spec point of view may rent a booth and provide material from the booth but may not promote their political view or philosophy outside of their booth or on the fairgrounds in general.
14. FFA and 4-H. No more than the assigned number of livestock can be entered.
15. No muzzling, drenching or pumping of livestock. Failure to comply with these rules will result in disqualification and/or loss of premium.

SANITARY REGULATIONS All buildings, stalls and pens containing livestock will be disinfected under competent supervision previous to the opening of the Fair.
